SOMETHING ABOUT GRANGES.—The BOS SOMETHING ABOUT GRANGES.—The Bosion Traveller of May 8 says: Accounts infer as to the extent of the "Grange" business. The number of Grangiers, or irangers, is stated by some writers to be 500,000—by others, it is put at 350,000.
No doubt the brotherhood is large, and is it is sail to have "Granges" in about twenty States, there is nothing improbable in the statement that the Grangiers are 500,000 strong. Their greates inreuse is said to have taken place in the last sixteen mouths, as they were not shove 60,900 in number at the close of 1871—and if they are 500,000 now, their last shifted and the close of 1871—and if they are 500,000 now, their increase in those months amounts to 40,000, being at the rate of 27,500 a month, a suprising rate for a fraternity to grow—and rather alarming, when we consider that the Grangiers may take it into their heads to act as a political party. They are, as a rule, farmers, or agriculturists generally, and their main purpose is to secure cheap transportation for farm produce, a point that interests aft these who cat quite as much as those who gow. The special objects of Grangier healify are rullway corporations.

Almost Burner Alive.—The Winona Republican of the 8th inst., says that a roung lady by the name of McQuaid hed as was supposed, of consumption, it Transpealeau, last Saturday. The ameral services were held on Tuesday, and upon proceeding to the country, a nile from where the funeral was held, mile from where the young lady resolved to postpone the burial. The coffin was opened and the body taken out, when she began to show signs of life and was she was a postpone where whe is see legal to a neighbor's, where she is now lying. We get the foregoing infor-mation from the operator at Trempealeau.

WONDERS OF THE GRAVE.-The tomb Wenders of the track.—The fomb of Eiward the First, who died in 1307, was opened January 2, 1770, after 468 years hai elapsed. His body was al-most perfect. Canute, (the Dane), who crossed over to England in 1017, was found in 1776 by the workmen who repaired Winchester Cathedral, where his body had reposed nearly 750 years, per-fectly fresh. In 1569 three Roman soliety fresh. In 1955 three Roman sol-diers, fally equipped with warlike im-plements were dug out of a bed of peat in Ireland, where they had lain probably 1,500 years. Their bodies were perfect-1,500 years. Their b ly fresh and plump.

Tor Musquakie Indian who was recently starved to death by order of his tribe, as a punishment for the murder of his wife, was also sentenced to be deprived of sleep until he died. During the eight days that he ingered his guards were constantly on the watch to prevent him sleeping. It is said that, with charhim sleeping. It is said that, with characteristic stolidity, he endured the agony of the situation, suffering terribly the third day and afterward, until eight days and a few hours had expired, when he drew a closing breath, and the demands of Indian justice were satisfied.

A tirrie girl, nine years old, in Milwaukee, Wis., who had stolen nine sets of earnings from girls of about her own age, his been cut short in her downward career by the police. Her plan was to accost the girls in the street, inform them their jewelry was falling, and then pretending to adjust it, work out the rings and run off before the astonished wher could stop her.

At a hotel, a short time since, a girl Ar a note, a short time since, a girl inquired of a gentleman at the table, if his cup was out. "No," said he, "but my coffee is." The poor girl went away considerably confused, but determined to pay him in his own coin. While at dinner the stage drove up, and several oming in, the centleman asked: Does the stage dine here?" "No, sir," replied the girl, in a sarcustic tone, "but the passengers do?"

A LCCRX HIT. A young man of the same of Hicks, recently conceived the idea of dipping matches, after they were dipped, in parafline, so as to protect them from moisture. For this improvement, we are told, he now receives from ment, we are tood, he now receives from a well known manufacturing establish-ment in New York, an income of about ten dollars per day. Matches thus pre-pared are said to ignite readily, after having lain in a besin of water all might.

THE STORY have appeared in force on he Northern Pacific Railroad, and rethe Northern Pacific Railroad, and re-cently to the number of 100 made a dem-instration upon Fort Abraham Lincoln, at the crossing of the Missouri river. They were repulsed, however, without serious trouble. It is thought there will be no trouble, but that it is merely bravide on the part of the Indians. savado on the part of the Indians.

A san story comes from Decatur, Illise in connection with the lost Atlanand saved for years, that she might send money to Germany to bring over her father, mother and five brothers and sistes. At last they received a sufficient san, all embarked on the steamer Atlane, and were lost.

A New York farmer laughed when his A ARW YORK farmer laughed when his pradent wife advised him not to smoke on a load of hay. He footed it home that night, with his hair singed, most of his garments a prey to the devouring elements, and the iron work of the wagon in a notate sack; and then his wife. in a potato sack; and then his wife
